The Colored Masons.

The brethren of this order met at the Turn Verien Hall last evening for the purpose of installing the officers of St. John's Lodge No. 13, under the jurisdiction of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of California. The following named of-Scere were installed into their severa; positions by Very Worshipful John A. Barber, Grand Master: Thomas Lee. W. M.; James Getty, S. W.; Jacob Johnson, J. W.; W. R. Brown, Secretary; Benj. Lane, Treasurer; John Smith, S. D.; Wm. Lee, J. D ; Frank Builer and Wm. Henderson, Stewards: G. W. Jackson. Tyler. An elaborate address was delivered by C. S. Mott of Carson on the antiquity and universality of Masonry, tracing it back beyond the days of the Chaldeans in the former. and extending in the latter to the utclosing with a pointed charge as to the diles and responsibilities of Masonry. Gand Mester Barber also delivered an excellent address. The brethren and their ladies then repaired to the banqueting hall and partook of a sumptuous colletion, after which dancing was in order until a late hour. A large attendance honored the ceremonies, all did justice to the repest and apparently en-juyed the threading of the giddy mazes.

FOR ENGROSSING CLERE -We have been handed the eard of W. W. Bordwell, a candidate for Engrossing Clerk of the Assembly of 1877. We remem ber Bordwell as an efficient and faithful officer, and wish him success.

CANDIDATES.-We learn from the Tribune that General Edwards of Ormsby and S. W. Chubbuck are candidates for President of the Senate pro tem. Both are excellent gentlemen for the A Carsonite Hailed by Bunko Sharps in New York.

From a recent returning board we have received a full count on a little incident which happened to a well known citizen of this burg, who holds a somewhat prominent position. It is vouched for on the very best authority. Our citizen was meandering up Fourth avenue and somehow lost his bearings. Being of an inquiring turn of mind he hailed a passing stranger and inquired the way to Madison avenue. The information was promptly given, but he had not traveled a block before he was stopped by a business like individual who said, 'How are you, Thompson?" 'My name is not Thompson," was the reply. "No! Why I thought you were Thompson of Boston?" "No," innocently replied our guileless sage brusher, giving himself completely away, "my name is -from out San Francisco way." "Ah, I really beg your pardon," politely apologized the other; "You so much resemble my friend Thompson. Pray excuse me. My name is Nixon of Boston, in the shoe and leather trade. No offence I hope." "Oh. no; none in the least;" cont carrying away a feeling under his most successful lobbyist in Sacramento," vest that he had sold out. The mystic word "bunko," dawned upon bis delmonte sharps of Battle Mountain he nerved himself for the NEXT INTERVIEW

Assuming the innocent air which a moment before he too naturally possessed, he carelessly observed the names on the street lamps, and in a few moments felt a hearty slap upon the shoulder, administered by a young gentleman most gorgeously gotten up. accompanied by the exclamation, "Why, how are you ——? I am glad to see you. Have'nt seen a Pacific Coaster for a month. This is a surprise. When did you come from San Francisco?" "Why, bellos," cheerfully responded the Pacific Coaster addressed; "How do you do? I came to the city this morning." "So lately? Have you seen any of the boys?" "Not "Come, take a drink," said the stranger. "No, thank you," replied our modest citizen, "Just taken my morning cocktail, and am going to see some ladies up on Madison avenue, and don't care to drink now." "Well, where are spin around with you. I have a little ceived a large assertment of Holiday run of things here," and coming down Goods, consisting of Plated Knives, to his work he carelessly added, "You Forks, Spoons, Fish Knives, Cake Bas-mylleod-wis-ly self;" and he went to see another man. He was 'nt Sharon's nephew either.

> INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS - At the Masonic Hall last evening there was a large gathering of the brethren of the "Mystic Tie." After the preliminary opening exercises the following named officers for the ensuing Masonic year were regularly installed by S. C. Wright, the retiring Worshipful Master of the Lodge and M. E. H. P. of the Chapter: Of Carson Lodge No. 1, A. F. and A. M.—H. S. Mason, W. M.; Geo, Gillson, S. W.; Alex Ardery, J. W.; J. T. Preddy, Secretary; Charles Martin, Treasurer; Frank Boskowitz, S. D.; J. Tob.iner, J. D.; John A. Johnson and Oberlin Louder, Stewards; F. W. Peters, Tyler. Of Lewis Chapter No. 1, Royal Arch Masous - Channery Noteware, M. E. H. P.; Charles Mertin, E. King; George Tufly, E. Scribe; George Gillson, C. of H.; Thos. J. Hodgkinson, R. A. C.; J. To-briner, G. M. 3d V.; John Cheney, G. M. 24 V.; W. O. Tripp, G. M. 1st V.; George Fleming, Guard; J. T. Preddy, Scerelary; Jacob Kiein, Treasurer.

CONCERT THIS EVENING. - The concert of Professor Borra this evening promises to be a very enjoyable affair and will afford a rich treat to the lovers of music. Professor Borra, Signor Deliepiane and Signor Motta are masters in the sweet art. Mr. Lowenstein is too well known and too highly appreciated to need any praise at our bands. Miss Niemeyer we hear highly spoken of, and to Miss Ketty Falk's sweet voice we have listened with pleasure. The programme includes an overture from "William Tell," some fine selections for the violin and piano, a few weet familiar songs, winding up with a Tyrolese variation. We predict a full house. There is to be a dance at the c'ose.

ARBESTS .- The Tribune of last evening notes the arrest of three notorious boodlums for burglary, they baving broken into Bergman's store and Rinckle's butcher shop, and makes a very strong case in favor of the much needed Reform School. In reference to the boy Welch, who is mentioned as aken from the Orphan's Home some time since, it is but justice to the directors of that institution to say that they personally hunted the boy up when he first ran away from Mr. Waguer and returned him to his employer. The Board at their meeting to-day will take into consideration his return to the

As we go to press we learn, through Superintendent Bray that a very rich strike has been made on the 530-foot level in the Belmont mine. We will publish full particulars in our next issue. Courier, Dec. 25.

Been going up on the Board, too. This is good news for Mike Purcell and a Mormon over near Genoa. They have been holding Belmont.

CABRIEL, TOOT YOUR HORN!

The Eiko Post informs us in its last cate some "very important measure," to the handsome Gabriel in doing the agreeable to ber; and furthermore, that is to say, we want him to take her off our hands. Come is, Gabe.

FOR ENGROSSING CLEER.-Mr. A. F. Tennant is out as a candidate for Eqgressing Clerk of the Assembly. Has been out sometime, we believe, Tennant was a good soldier on the right side, which was the north side, during all the war, and is withal a first class accountant. He would do well in the issue that "Gabriel Cohn will claim a seat in the coming session of the State Senate. He bases his claim to the pcsition on the ground that he himself was elected to the office of Senator for four years, and only having served two years he is entitled to the office for two years longer. Who the ex-Senator proposes to oust from that position we are unable to learn. Whether he intends to oust the present honorable member, Mr. Shepherd, or to prevent the newly elected Sanator, Mr. Stone, from taking his seat, rumor does not say. The actions of Mr. Cohn, during the recent campaign, would to say the least, induce thinking people to believe that his pretensions to the office or Senator have only been induced since his defest at the polis on the 7th of November. His action in accepting the nomination for that office from the Democratic party, and entering into a lively canvass throughput the county, is certainly sufficient . videuce that at that time he had no belief in his present pretensions." Now that last sentence is unkind in the Post. We wish Gabe every success in his new venture. We want him back in the Senate the worst kind, and we know why he wants to come.
